Just for lack of one little safe slam the hook for him as soon as they could at the ball at any one of half a dozen times, the Academy lost to Morgan school of Clinton Saturday afternoon, 2 to 1, on the campus. It was the best played game shown by the Academy this season and was a tentalizing him. played game shown by the Academy this season and was a tantalizing kind of a game to lose and luck figured to some extent in sending the Morgan boys home winners. Luck, and the clab for Morgan school. In fact, the Morgan battery left little for the rest of the team to do, as Catcher Merwin crossed the pan with the two runs that beat the Academy, and Pitcher Moore counted up the star total of fifteen. beat the Academy, and Pitcher Moore counted up the star total of fifteen strikeout victims. In six of the nine innings he fanned two of the three needed to retire the side. McKay in the second, Captain Noyes in the third and Lawler in the fifth each opened their inning with a two bagger, but not a hit off the lanky portsider could be gathered to bring them in.

While the Morgan pitcher was holding the Academy so tight, the home

ing the Academy so tight, the home team was also developing a find in the pitching department in young Bert Bailey. He pitched a cool and heady game, although striking out only one, but he had the batters laying them down to the infield or sending up skydown to the infield or sending up skyscrapers that were taken in clever form by Captain Noyes, Lawler and Thempson. Bailey made one had break with a wild pitch on which Merwin scored from first with Morgan's first run, after the visiting catcher had got on through Murray's poor throw to first in the second inning. This evened up the score, as the Academy had made a good start at the opening.
Lawler going to first when pinked by one of Moore's benders, stealing second, reaching third on the throw past
the bag, and scoring when Merwin
dropped the third strike on Ricketts, Hendrick and Murray fenned.

Hendrick and Murphy followed with singles, but Murray fanned.

Another bad throw in the fourth helped to produce the run that won the game, Murphy heaving over third base in trying to make a double play on Burdick's sacrifice, which Baffey fielded. Merwin, who had singled, reached third on the throw over and scored when Clark put one in short center that Lawler couldn't quits reach. Thompson closed the inning with a double play off Close's fly ball, catching Finer off second.

Chapple McKay was caught stepping out of his box when batting and decisred out. Tracy and Wulf were rushed in for pinch hitters, but both fanned without touching the bell.

Captain Noves did great work on six chances in left field, retiring the side of four difficult flies in the eighth, Shortstop Hendrick was a stone wall on grounders, and Murray put in a busy day at third, where he fielded well. The whole team showed a snappy, wideawake game that is bound to

The Norwich C. A. C. team upheid the honor of their city Saturday in their opening game as members of the Rhede Island-Connecticut-league, defeating White Rock, 9 to 5, on the White Rock grounds. It was a well played game, in which Capt. Tim Sullivan of the C. A. C.'s was there with the headwork and mussed up the opposition early in the game with a combination of bunts and also did some effective slugging when needed. Catcher McManus was the big man with the stick, getting four hits out of five times and bringing in four runs. Houlihan got a healthy rap for three bags in the seventh which scored a run for the C. A. C.'s.

White Rook did their big scoring in two innings, the fourth and fifth, being helped out in the sixth by Marra's liberality in Issuing two free passes. Kane's error, Wright's two bagger and a poor throw.
